A 60-day workout plan allows you to plan your training well in advance. This takes the guesswork out of figuring out which exercise to do on a particular day, and it also ensures you include a good deal of variety in your training regimen. Variety is the key to avoiding fitness plateaus, not to mention it keeps your workouts from getting boring. The structure of this plan is to exercise five times per week, most likely Monday through Friday, for 12 weeks — a total of 60 days.
